

Associate Membership Guidelines

To be eligible for supporter/associate membership the applicant organization must operate a business or be an organization that is involved in the tourism industry.
$50 per financial Year as per normal membership

Benefits

- Showing your support to the industry by actively contributing to the development and representation of Information Centres and tourism in Queensland
- Regular newsletters containing information about current QICA projects, current issues and news from our industry
- Information in newsletter to members about your business as decided by Management Committee
- Details of your business on QICA Website including link to your website
- Contact with members via QICA Management Committee
- Invitation to participate in the Annual QICA Conference
- Member discount for delegates attending the Conference
- Receiving Networking advantages
- Membership is tax deductible

Limitations

- No Voting rights at Annual General Meeting
- No access to ordinary members database
- No position on Management Committee – unless invited by Management Committee for a special project or industry advice